

TYNESIDE CEILIDH NIGHTS

The August Ceilidh Night will be on:

Tuesday 1st August 2023

8pm – 10.30pm

at St Aidan's Community Centre

Princes Road

Brunton Park

NE3 5TT

ADMISSION £7

Everybody is welcome to come along to dance (and listen to our wonderful live band, the Redheughers Ceilidh Band) whether you're completely new to ceilidh dancing or whether you've been dancing for years. Our friendly callers will fully explain and guide you through all of the dances, tailoring the evening to ensure that everybody is able to join in and have a great time.

There is no bar so please bring your own cold drinks and glasses.

There will be hot drinks (coffee, tea, hot chocolate and a selection of herbal teas/infusions) plus a small selection of snacks available to purchase for a very reasonable price!!

Please bring your own mug/travel mug if possible.

At our July ceilidh night we had a great evening with a lovely selection of dances from resident callers Robin Dunn, Rachael Hales, Alan Storey and Richard Carter, including a couple of American dances to celebrate Independence Day. We were delighted to welcome along a few new dancers and introduce them to do-si-dos, ladies chains and more!!

You can now find information about our ceilidh nights at <https://redheughers.org.uk/tyn...> as well as by visiting our facebook page. Please do help us spread the word if you know anybody who might be interested in coming along.

We are looking for one of two dancers to work with the Redheughers Committee to help shape our ceilidh nights going forward. If you would like to be involved with this, please get in touch or have a chat to us at the next ceilidh.

OTHER CEILIDHS COMING UP

If you know of any other public ceilidhs in the local area, please do let us know so that we can distribute details. Also, keep an eye on our facebook page, we'll post details of any ceilidhs we find out about at short notice there.

A message from Shirley Foster regarding the St George's Country Dance Club: "Folk old and new would be very welcome at our monthly Morpeth offering. Both players and dancers welcome.. we are a mixed ability band and chip in our £2.00 to take part.. and mixed ability dancers tending towards grandparent age sometimes with grandchildren!

Could players especially got in touch with me before coming so i can tell them about how we practice and organise our music and other idiosyncrasies.." You can contact Shirley using the details on the poster above.

HaveMaypoleWillTravel dance group meets on Monday mornings in term time from 10.30 am to 12.00 noon in Mitford village hall near Morpeth. We are a small, friendly group having a laugh attempting dances from the fifteenth to the nineteenth century. Some of us also dance out in costume, but that's very much an optional extra. New dancers and musicians welcome. £5 a session which includes tea/coffee and biscuits. First one free. If you're interested please contact Elizabeth Lawson at noswal.e@gmail.com or ring 07704415947 (it's useful to know who's coming in case we have to cancel at short notice)

Attendance is at your own risk, and we cannot take responsibility for any transmission of covid-19 that may occur.

Tyneside Ceilidh Club has now been rebranded as the Tyneside Ceilidh Nights. We will use this mailing list to keep you informed of any changes, and to let you know about future events.
